

WASHINGTON STATE INDEPENDENT LIVING COUNCIL

wasilc.org

“The time is always right to do what is right.”

-Martin Luther King, Jr.

The WA SILC oversees the implementation of the State Plan for Independent Living
(SPIL) in Washington
State. SPIL Mission:

“People with disabilities in Washington State live independently and participate fully in their community.”

WA SILC provides statewide system
advocacy for all services given to all disability communities across our State.

Council Members

Deb Cook, DSB (Ex-Officio)

Jana Finkbonner, VR Tribal Representative

Keith James, Advocate of Individuals with Disabilities

Mark Leeper, Center Directors Representative

Ryan Nabors, Other CIL Representative

Almir Trejo, General Public Representative

Sheila Turner, Parent/Guardian Representative

Krysta Van-Woert, General Public Representative

Kayla Victor, Private Business Representative

Council Staff

Kim Conner, Executive Director

Alex Hatcher, Inclusive Emergency Planning Manager

Cassi Villegas, Executive Assistant

